

Professor Lestor of Carnegie Mellon University said that less than two percent of all cancers are caused by chemicals.

Representative from McKeesport Hospital Blood Bank discussed blood shortage and how it is resulting in cancelled operations.

Rev. David Else of Coalition for Addictive Diseases, discussed his group, who it might help, how to get that help.

Ron Waitsman of Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania, said government is not reimbursing hospitals for medicare and medicaid patients or growing number of uninsured people.

Sam Papa, president of The Bakery, confectionary and tobacco workers union, discussed a study funded by the tobacco industry that showed almost 80% of the over 500 Pittsburghers surveyed were against pending anti-smoking legislation.

Sharon Hicks, Clinical Administrator at Western Psychiatric Institute talks about a hotline now in effect that gives people direction with their feelings; comments about "C.N.N. Complex" - watching too much news can be bad for you.

Sister Donna Swigart of the American Cancer Society said that the society has teamed up with many hospitals and is offering reduced rate mammograms under a breast cancer detection awareness program.

The author of Laugh it Off, Jane Noland, talks about how laughing can help you lose weight and how to make sure you "laugh it off" everyday.

Vince Romito, president of Association for Non-Smokers Rights in PA, applauded Pittsburgh City Council's action in passing a tough anti-smoking bill which, when it takes effect, will restrict or ban smoking in many public and some private buildings.

Vince Romitto, president of Pennsylvania Association for Non-Smokers Rights, said that House Bill 140, if passed, will restrict when and where people may smoke in workplaces and restaurants.

Walker Merryman of the Tobacco Institute said that the institute has been and is very concerned about anti-smoking legislation proposed anywhere in the nation.

Wayne Emery of "Those Who Wait" talked of trying to get 19 month old Martha Lukay of Peru on the waiting list for a liver transplant.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are we playing God by using medical technology to help select the sex of our offspring

Bathing suit weather isn't far off. What are you doing to get your body in shape

Before his death, Ryan White did a great deal to educate people about AIDS. Do you think people are more understanding and accepting of the disease today as a result

Broccoli has turned out to be a big issue with President Bush. What do you think of the whole "controversy"

Congress is considering a smoking ban on all domestic airline flights. How do you feel about that

Do smokers bother you? When do you find smoking most offensive

Do you agree .. it's not immoral for doctors to help terminally ill patients commit suicide

Do you agree with City Council's plan to restrict the locations of cigarette vending machines

Do you agree with passing out free needles to drug addicts to cut down on the spread of AIDS

Do you agree with the smoking ban on Northwest Airlines flights except to Hawaii

Do you believe in mercy killings

Do you favor a new drug being used as an alternative to surgical abortions

Do you think there should be a law banning the distribution of free cigarette samples on the street

Do you think Americans have become obsessed with health and fitness

Do you think doctors should be required to give names of AIDS patients to state health officials

Do you think enough is being done to prevent the spread of AIDS

Do you think medical costs are too high

Do you think medical researchers overstep the bounds of morality

Do you think parents should be able to choose the sex of their children

Do you think school lunches are nutritious enough

Do you think the increase of smoking bans across the nation will have an impact on the number of smokers

Do you think the major airlines should ban smoking altogether

Do you think the publicity surrounding some transplant candidates increases their chances of getting a donor organ

Do you think the transplant system in Pittsburgh hospitals is adequate

Do you think tobacco companies should be held liable for people who get cancer because of smoking

Do you think tougher restrictions should be placed on health care workers who've tested positive for AIDS

Do you think you will ever have plastic surgery

Doctors: Are you fearful of catching AIDS from your patients? What precautions do you take

Does garlic really have medicinal purposes? What are some superstitions surrounding garlic

Does it bother you when people smoke in public places

Does the recent A.M.A finding that tanning is risky affect you

Has the AIDS scare influenced how you feel about the homosexual community

Have you considered having an AIDS antibody test, for safety's sake

Have you used alcohol in the past year

How are you handling the city's new smoking ban

How can we lower the infant mortality rate in this country

How concerned are you about AIDS

How does the weather affect the way you feel

How has the AIDS scare affected your sex life

How many of your pregnancies have been planned

If your doctor discovered you had a terminal illness, would you want to know

In light of the AIDS case in Florida, do you think there should be a law forcing doctors to tell their parents they have the disease

In your opinion, how important is it to use a sunscreen while sunbathing

Now that the season is once again upon us, what's your favorite cold and flu fighting remedy

Should Children's Hospital be able to decide if a two year old abused, comatose boy there should be kept alive by life support

Should TV appeals for donor organs be a part of the transplant process

Should a portion of the state's lottery profits be used for the treatment of compulsive gamblers

Should children with AIDS be permitted in school

Should cigarette vending machines be banned

Should couples have to take an AIDS test before getting a marriage license

Should doctors have the right to help terminally ill patients commit suicide

Should fast food restaurants be required to list the ingredients of their foods

Should restaurant personnel know CPR and the Heimlich maneuver

Should runners be required to take physical exams before registering to run

Spring is here and so is the diet season. What's one food you'd never give up no matter what diet you were on

Stormy Jones is back at Children's Hospital undergoing tests for liver rejection. What words of encouragement would you like to give her, and others in similar situations

Summer's just around the corner. Do repeated warnings about the dangers of sun-bathing keep you in the shade

The Surgeon General recommends that we teach young children the facts about AIDS to keep the deadly disease from spreading. How old should the kids be? How do you feel about his recommendation

There have been rumors about a smoking ban at the stadium. Do you think an ideal like that would ever be passed

This month is national fitness and sports month. Would you say your're physically fit

To what age do you expect to live

What are you doing to stay healthy and fit these days

What are your major health concerns

What do you think about a decision that found a cigarette maker partly responsible for a smoker's death

What makes a good medical doctor

What should be done to help the nursing shortage across the country

When Spring Fever hits, what do you feel like doing to cure it

Will the new report released by the Surgeon General saying nicotine is addictive make you stop smoking

Would you mind working closely with someone you knew had AIDS

Would you support a bill that segregates smokers and non-smokers in restaurants and on the job

Would you undergo surgery to improve your looks

Would you volunteer to undergo tests for drug research

---

Homelessness

The organizations which provide services for the homeless need improved support, and this requires that the media assist them in getting the word out about what they do and what they need.

This problem has worsened over the years. There are people who genuinely need help, and there is a growing animosity toward a small segment of rip off artists who pass themselves off as homeless.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Jonathan Zimmer, executive director of Pittsburgh's Action Housing, discussed the topic of homelessness in Pittsburgh, the increase in the number of homeless people, and more money that is being allocated to help the homeless.

Host Shelley Duffy and Ken Winnegard, who conducted a study on the homeless in Pittsburgh, and Laura Daugherty, Director of the YMCA Bridge Housing Program in Wilkinsburg, talked about the homeless problem and what can be done about it.

News

Dennis Trigalette of the Hunger Action Coalition said that his group has formed a political action committee to pressure lawmakers into concern for the hungry.

Phil Pappas, director fo Community Human Services Corporation, discussed YMCA project aimed at helping homeless become self-sufficient.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Do you think it should be illegal for people to sleep overnight in public

How can we help the homeless in our city

Why do you think there's such a problem with homelessness in our country

---

Housing

There is a need for lower income housing, particularly for minorities and the elderly.

Pittsburgh does not have a strong game plan to provide lower income housing. Many neighborhoods need attention, and there are many unoccupied buildings that could be used for the homeless and the elderly.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Allegheny County Sherrif Eugene Coon. He discussed his new bill pending that would prevent profiteers from buying and selling foreclosed properties at obscene profits.

News

Terry Gould, Action Housing, talked about shortage of low cost housing and rental houseing, due to lack of Federal financial support.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Describe your dream house

---

International Issues

Developments abroad affect the development of industry in Pittsburgh, and thereby the quality of life in general for Pittsburgh residents.

Pittsburgh is slowly becoming a more international city.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Bill Jenson and Matt Shannon of the Great Peace March on their involvement in the March and what is actually going on now.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Bishop James Ault, resident BIs hop of the Pittsburgh Area United Methodist Church. The discussed a pastoral letter on the nuclear crisis and discussed what prompted them to do it.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. Douglas Lamont, author of "Forcing Our Hand: America's Trade Wars in the 1980's." Topics discussed included trade, protectionism, the steel industry, trade problems facing America, and potential solutions.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Margaret Dimmler, a consultant for prime contractors with NASA, about her viewpoints on the space program. Dimmler believes that Japan will take the lead in space unless Congress gives more money to the space program.

Host Liz Randolph talks about the University of Pittsburgh and the United Jewish Federation exhibit "Auschwitz-A Crime Against Mankind," which detailed the horrors of the largest Nazi death camp in Poland.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Helmut Kohl, energy and foreign policy expert, talked about the foreign policy problems like oil supplies.

Host Shelley Duffy and Hendrick Smith, the author of "The New Russians," talked about the way Russia has changed over the years, everything from women to factory managers and their roles in the "New Russia."

Host Shelley Duffy and Professor Jules Lobell, from Pitt Law School, discussed his views about the invasion of Panama, the legality of the situation, and what this will mean for the future of the U.S.

Host Shelley Duffy and pediatrician, Dr. Richard Michaels, talked about Nuclear test ban treaties and why this country should agree to sign one to help eliminate Nuclear war. He is a member of the Committee for a Nuclear Test Ban.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:30 on 12/15/90.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 12/29/90 at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 12/8/90 at 7:00.

Repeat of the show aired at 7:00 on 1/20/90.

News

A Chinese student at the University of Pittsburgh, Tim Xie, talks about the situation in China...saying the government may have the upper hand now, it won't last in the long run. Democracy will prevail.

Annis Sokolowski, whose son is in the Air Force and over in the Persian Gulf, talks about his, and her, preparedness for war, if she agrees with why the troops are there, and her overall feelings about the situation in the Gulf now.

Bob Bond, co-owner of Outdoor Army/Navy Store, talks about sales of flags, military clothing, and gas masks at his store. he says "the masks are sold out because people fear terrorist attacks here in Pittsburgh."

Cathleen Hower of Brothers' Brother Foundation, non-profit group aiding victims of catastrophies, explained how group is collecting for earth quake victims in El Salvador.

Donald Jameson (Guest Speaker/World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh) spoke about Soviet; what they are like, their views of Khadaffi, how they live, and their perception of the U.S.

Dr. Michael Brenner, U.S. Security expert, Pitt Professor, talks about the meeting between Secretary of State Baker and Iraqi foreign minister Tariq Aziz, what effect it'll have, why it's being held, and what if it doesn't work.

Laura Isenber, Graduate School of Public and International Affairs at the University of Pittsburgh, spoke on whether the U.S. should launch an attack against Iraq now that the deadline is passed and why the Palestinian peace conference is not a good

Laura Isenber, an instructor at the University of Pittsburgh, talked about whether the U.S. should launch an attack against Iraq now that the deadline has passed. She also maintained that the Palestinian peace conference is not a good idea.

Margaret Bobberschmidt, AT&T, talks about phone calls increasing to the Middle East, suggestions when calling and special links to the region.

Master Sgt. James Jastrebzski with the 911th tactical airlift group, talks about U.S. weather advantages if there is war against Iraq, what our defenses look like and what our chances are against Iraq. What effect the weather will have as well.

PA Senator John Heinz talks about Bush's plan to stop selling military weapons to China and stop meeting with military leaders. The move is in response to the violence in Beijing over the weekend. Heinz agrees with the move.

Paul Hammond, Director of the Ridgeway Center of International Securities Studies, at Pitt, talks about the middle east crisis, and why retaliation by the U.S. would be foolish at this time.

Paul Hammond, Professor of Public and International Affairs, Director Matthew B. Ridgeway, Center for International Security Studies at Pitt, talks about the first four days of the Gulf War, and how he believes plans are going. Be careful of optimism

Paul Hammond, Professor of Public and International Affairs, Director Matthew B. Ridgeway, Center for International Security Studies at Pitt, talks about the first days of the Gulf War, and how he believes plans are going. Be careful with optimism.

Pitt's Steve Zupchich detailed one of the most moving exhibits to come to Pittsburgh area in long time - "Auschwitz, A Crime Against Mankind", which carefully documents the horrors of Nazi Germany in World War II.

Senator John Heinz talks about the war and how he believes Saddam Hussanine should be tried as a war criminal, along with his military men.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A new survey finds most Americans trust the Soviet Union and leader Gorbachev more these days. Do you agree

Are you worried about Khadfy's threats

As the Chitauqua at Pitt continues, how would you sum up your views about the Soviet Union

Do you believe Saddam Hussaine's claim that he wants to release all foreign hostages

Do you believe in UFO's

Do you believe we know the whole truth about U.S. Foreign Policy

Do you concern yourself with foreign affairs

Do you really care about the Iranian Arms scandal

Do you support a ground war against Iraq

Do you support our action against Libya? Have we done too much or not enough

Do you think Mikail Gorbachov was a good choice as the winner of the Nobel Peace Prize

Do you think President Reagan did a good job of handling the recent hostage crisis

Do you think Saddam Hussaine will back down and pull his troops out of Kuwait by January 15th

Do you think U.S. intervention in Panama will help or hurt the situation there

Do you think our government provides too much aid to foreign countries

Do you think superpower sumits produce significant results

Do you think talks between Secretary of State Baker and the Iraqi Foreign Minister will help the Gulf Crisis

Do you think the Ayatollah's death will mean an improvement in relations between the U.S. and Iran

Do you think the Government is doing enough to get the hostages in Lebanon released

Do you think the Gulf Peace Agreement will help in the release of U.S. hostages in Beirut

Do you think the Persian Gulf Crisis will end in war

Do you think the Soviet Union will decide to change to a multi-party system

Do you think the U.S. and the Soviets will reach any major agreements in the upcoming Summit

Do you think the U.S. is doing enough to protect its citizens being held hostage in Lebanon

Do you think the U.S. should help to restore the economy in the Soviet Union

Do you think the U.S. should become more involved with the fight against drugs in Columbia

Do you think the U.S. should get involved with Iraq's civil war

Do you think the release of hostage Robert Polhill is a good sign for the future of others being held in Lebanon

Do you think there's going to be another war in the Gulf

Do you think we can survive a limited nuclear conflict

Do you think we'll ever know the truth behind the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103

Do you think world leaders have done all they can to reach a peaceful solution to the Persian Gulf Crisis

Do you understand what's going on in Nicaragua? Is Nicaragua another Vietnam

Does it worry you that Saddam Hussaine is still in power

Does the Reagan administration policy in the Persian Gulf worry you

Does the thought of World War III ever cross your mind

Due to all the terrorist activity, have you made any changes in your travel plans

Even though the War is over, do you think the United States should continue peace efforts in the Middle East

Have your travel plans changed due to all the terrorist activity

How do you feel about East and West Germany reuniting (good or bad)

How do you feel about President Bush's decision not to help Lithuania and impose sanctions on the Soviet Union

How do you feel about giving economic aid to the Soviet Union

How do you feel about the way President Bush is handling the Persian Gulf Crisis

How do you think President Bush is handling the crisis in the Persian Gulf

How do you think the U.S. should respond to the situation in China

How do you think the situation in China will affect democratic reform

If reports about Iran assisting in the release of hostages prove to be true, should the U.S. reward the efforts

If the United States would capture Saddam Hussaine, how should he be punished

If you could live anywhere in the world, where would it be

If you could sit down and talk with Iraqi leader Saddam Hussaine, what would you say

In light of the recent developments in East Germany, would you say communism is dying

Now that Nelson Mandella has been released, should the U.S. ease economic sanctions against South Africa

Now that the hostages are being released, do you think the Gulf Crisis will be solved, without going to war

President Reagan says Iran isn't stupid enough to start a war with the U.S. What do you think

Should the U.S. be giving aid to El Salvador

Should the U.S. respond to death threats against hostages being held in Lebanon

Should the U.S. resume arms talks with the Soviet Union or are they a waste of time.

Should the U.S. take all steps necessary, including military intervention, to stop the spread of communism in the world

Should the U.S. use military force to stop terrorism

Should the United States use military force in the Persian Gulf

Should there be a ban on nuclear testing

Should we continue to pursue and punish Nazis

Should we send non-military aid to the Nicaraguan rebels

Should we use outer space for private, commercial business ventures

Some members of Congress want to invoke the war powers act to limit U.S. Military activity in the Persian Gulf. Do you think that's a good idea

The deadline has come and gone and war seems inevitable in the Persian Gulf. When do you think military attack should take place

There was a report of a U.F.O. landing in a Russian City. What do you think about U.F.O.s and Aliens

Was President Reagan's trip to China worthwhile

Was it a mistake for President Reagan to deal with Iran

What action should the U.S. take in South Africa, considering that the rioting over there is escalating

What do you think about superpower sumits

What do you think about the U.N. resolution approving the use of force against Iraq

What do you think about the U.S. providing aid to earthquake victims in Iran

What do you think about the recent incident in the Persian Gulf

What should we do about the Phillipines situation

What's your reaction to the ouster of Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev

When do you think there should be a cease fire

---

Media

The media can do much to direct positive attention to Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania in general. The media can also help community service groups by focusing on their objectives and needs.

It is perceived by some that the media reflect only on negative or sensational events.

Dialogue

Host Shelley Duffy and Jerry Oppenheimer, author of Barbara Walters' unauthorized biography, talks about what he discovered during his research. He reveals what family, friends and co-workers had to say about the broadcast journalist.

Host Shelley Duffy and author of "That Girl and Phil," Desmond Atholl, talks about his book which tells the inside story of what it's like to work for Marlo Thomas and Phil Donahue.

This show was a repeat of the show aired on 1/12/91.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are the February sweets going to make you tune in to tabloid TV

Do you feel the news media is manipulated

Do you miss Walter Cronkite

Do you think Barry Bonds has received a bad rap from the Press

Do you think Presidential debates are an important part of the election

Do you think Prime T.V. is too risqué

Do you think Television is better now than it was ten years ago

Do you think more or less of the press for reporting on Gary Hart's dalliances with women

Do you think news reporting is as objective as it should be

Do you think the media has gone too far in reporting the past of Senator Dan Quayle

Do you think the media's coverage of recent airplane tragedies and problems has been exaggerated

Does the news media do a good job of reporting the facts

How do you feel about condom ads on television

How do you feel about kiss and tell books about the U.S. Presidents

How far is too far when reporting on a political candidate

How would you rate USA Today? What are strengths and weaknesses

If you were the host of your own talk show, who would you interview first

Is Gary Hart's private life the news media's business

Is the toy industry influencing kids' T.V. too much

Should a television station air graphic footage of a suicide

Should the T.V. networks extend their nightly news programs to one hour

Should T.V. cameras be allowed in courtrooms

The FCC is thinking about reinstating advertising limits for kids' television. What's your feedback

The official T.V. rating season has come to a close and NBC has finished first for the 6th year in a row. What is your favorite show on the top network

What did you think of the news coverage of the shuttle disaster

What do you think about TV shows that deal with teen sexuality issues

What do you think about all the attention the media have given to the Zsa Zsa Gabor trial

What do you think about television talk shows

What do you think about the city's newspaper

What do you think about the ongoing coverage of the Gulf Crisis

What do you think of C.N.N. reporting from Bagdad

What do you think of morning radio show humor in Pittsburgh

What mixed messages do young people get from the media when it comes to sex

What's your assessment of the media's coverage of the AIDS issue

What's your favorite magazine

What's your feedback on Playgirl Magazine's decision to return to showing centerfolds with full frontal nudity

What's your feedback on the FCC's decision to drop the fairness doctrine

What's your feedback on the media's coverage of the superpower summit. How do you think the Summit went

Which local newspaper is the fairest

Which of society's problems do you feel are most ignored

Who is one person who's always making news that you could definitely do without

Who's your favorite network newscaster

Will the controversy surrounding a memo written by Today Show co-host, Bryant Gumbel, make you tune in to see how his co-workers react

---

Military

This includes current members of the armed forces, as well as those who have served in uniform in the past.

Vietnam war veterans, former POWs and MIAs are being recognized in Pittsburgh

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and T.J.McGarvey, president of the Pittsburgh/Allegheny County Vietnam Veteran Monument, discussed the plight of the Vietnam Veteran and how Americans are finally making peace with the Vietnam War Issue.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jerry Brazo, co-author of "Coping with War and its Aftermath," talked about how soldiers are still dealing with the effects of war, and how they will continue to do so, even though it has been over for months, how we can help.

Host Shelley Duffy and Master Sergeant James Jastrzebski of the 911th Tactical Airlift Group with the Air Force, talked about the Persian Gulf Crisis, his experiences in the region, and what he believed would be the outcome.

Host Shelly Duffy and Dr. Art Van Kara, clinical psychologist, discussed the very specific kind of post combat stress that Vietnam Vets experience and how counseling for both the Vets and their families would alleviate the problem.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 12/15/90 at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 4/27/91 at 7:00.

News

Allen Kukovich, State Representative, discussed bill introduced into legislation aimed at establishing a Vietnam Veterans Memorial Commission.

BBarry Lybell, who served in the Gulf War, talks about the welcome home parade in Pittsburgh and all the support he's receiving.

Bill Clark, spokesman/U.S. Army. Interviewed two days before the first voluntary muster in over 150 years. It's designed to see how "ready" individual reserve is. 800 showed up from Pittsburgh area.

David Crosby of Crosby, Stills and Nash said that there are many who feel that Vietnam Vets got the short end of the stick when they returned from the war.

David McPeak, Vietnam Outreach Program, discussed this counseling service for Vietnam Vets, and the fact that there are more Vets not covered than are covered by the programs.

Master Sgt James Jastrebski discussed the weather advantages the U.S. will have in a war against Iraq, what our defenses look like, and what our chances are.

Sandy Kellson, President of Local Chapter of "Veterans for Peace" talks about the welcome home parade for Gulf War Veterans and how it glorifies war. John Cappmbell, a member of 24th Infantry Division (Army) talks about what it was like over there.

T.J. McGarvey of the Monument Committee talked about the fundraising efforts for the local Vietnam Vet monument.

T.J. McGarvey, Committee for Vietnam Veterans Memorial, discussed events that will take place to help fund monument.

T.J. McGarvey, president of the Vietnam Vets Monument Committee, discussed the plans for unveiling the monument on Veteran's Day in Pittsburgh. Monument fund is still about $80,000 shy of its fund raising goal.

T.J. McGarvey, spokesman for Vietnam Veteran's Monument group, announced groundbreaking in North Side's Clemente Park for monument honoring those who lived and died in Vietnam War.

Pittsburgh Opinion

As our troops continue to return, tell us what would be the first thing you'd do if you'd spent several months away from home

Can Star Wars work? Does the thought of having a defensive shield against incoming Soviet missiles sound workable to you

Considering the recent string of accidents, are you questioning the Navy's competence

Do you personally know anyone who is in the Persian Gulf

Do you think Allied Forces should move on to a ground war

Do you think its possible to protest the Gulf War and still support our troops

Have Americans forgotten the POW's/MIA's still over in Vietnam

How do you feel about both military parents reporting for duty in the Persian Gulf

How do you feel about the Military's ban on homosexuals

Is pressure in the Persian Gulf worth the risk of war

Is there a better way to honor our war dead than with parades and memorial services

Now that we have a Vietnam Vetran's Monument, do you feel you've been welcomed home

Should the Federal Government be able to refuse financial aid to someone who won't register for the draft

Should the U.S. develop weapons for use in space

Should women be able to serve on the front lines, if war breaks out in the Persian Gulf

Some lawmakers want to limit our military involvement in the Pesian Gulf. Do you think that's a good idea

What do you think of President Reagan's philosophy that the military needs to be built up

What does Memorial Day mean to you

What frightens you most about war

What holiday message would you like to send to the Troops in the Persian Gulf

What's your reaction to Operation Desert Storm

What's your reaction to President Bush's decision to send additional troops to Panama

What's your reaction to the latest events in the Persian Gulf

---

Minority Issues

Poverty, unemployment and infant mortality are problems, particularly among Inner city Black youth. There should be greater focus on Black movement into the middle class to help create a positive image.

Racism and segregation still need to be addressed in the Pittsburgh community. It is sometimes heard that the media, in general, report only on the negative news happening in the Afro American community

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Director of African affairs for the Pittsburgh Chapter of the N.A.A.C.P detailed a new campaign just begun to help the victims of apartheid.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Edna McKinsey, a professor of history and chairperson of black, minority and ethnic studies at CCAC, talked about local black history and how it is important for young people to realize the importance of blacks in America.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed local activists Tim Stevens and Stephen Broadus on a new black voter registration drive, called the Black Political Empowerment Project, designed to register every black voter in the city.

Host Liz Randolph talked about the status of blacks in Pittsburgh, as perceived by the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Urban League.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Chuch Burough and Bonnie Milsagol of the Three Rivers American Indian Inc. about Indian Council services.

Host Liz Randolph, Reverend Alfred Pugh, and Lynn Hayes-Freeland, two members of Pittsburgh's black community, discussed the high unemployment rate in black men and teens.

News

Chris Kelly, Chief of Police in Homestead, answered his critics as to why he ordered a controversial door to door search in Homestead to catch a rapist.

Dr. Edna McKinsey, professor of history, chairperson of black, minority and ethnic studies, Community College Allegheny County, talked about local black history discussed realization of young people that black Americans were, are key to shaping America

Dr. Jake Milliones, President, Pittsburgh School Board, commented on proposal by Arizona Gov. to eliminate Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday as a state holiday.

Dr. Ogle Duff, Director Pitt University Desegregation Center, commenting on conference for teachers discussion centering on academic gap between black and white students was discussed. Dr. Duff said some black students are not properly motivated.

Irene Thomas of the Coalition Against Racist Violence said the group is calling for a federal investigation into the ethnic intimidation case in Morningside in which 3 white men were acquitted on charges they attacked and beat a group of black people

Irene Thomas, Pittsburgh Coalition Against Racial Violence, said that organization is organizing a civil rights march to protest recent local racial violence.

Leon Haley, Ex-Director of Pittsburgh Urban League, commented on what Martin Luther King might think of changes in rights and social standing of blacks since his death in early '60s.

Marion Damick, A.C.I.B. (protects minorities from unlawful harassment) was up in arms because police in Homestead were asking black men to voluntarily submit to fingerprinting, other unorthodox investigative techniques to try to catch a rapist.

Pinkie Famloni of the NAACP discussed a new "KEY" campaign aimed at building a legal defense fund for 1,000's of blacks in South Africa illegally detailed by officers working under the racist system of apartheid.

Senator James Romanelli said that the Senate will most likely vote to continue the operation of the Minority Business Development Authority.

Star Marshall, Vice President of the Urban League of Pittsburgh, said that they have called for a task force to investigate recent racial attacks in Pittsburgh.

Tim Stevens, Black Political Empowerment Project, applauded the voters who voted a black onto Pittsburgh City Council; the first black female Appeals Court judge in Pennsylvania's history.

Tim Stevens, The Black Political Empowerment Projects, hope to register enough black voters to end up with a 70-80% turnout for May primary, and end up with at least two blacks elected to city council.

Tim Stevens, organizer of Black Political Empowerment Project, stated that there was a high black voter turnout in last election.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A statue of a steelworker on display for the Arts Festival has the word hunky on its back. Do you consider the word an ethnic slur

Are blacks discriminated against in baseball management

Arizona voters rejected a Martin Luther King holiday in the state. Now the N.F.L. wants to move the Superbowl from Sun Devil Stadium in 1993. How do you feel about that

Do you think racial violence against black students occurs more often than we think

Is racial tension on the rise

---

Personal Finance

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Elliot Adier, Pittsburgh Branch Manager of Fidelity Investments, discussed what's good and what's not in the way of investments.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Warren Schrum, spokesperson for the local District of the Internal Revenue Service, and discussed the filing season, new deductions, and valuable tax tips.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Warren Schrum of the IRS who explained the new withholding form.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Joe Brosick, of the Big Eight Accounting Firm Pete Marwick about the new tax code that just cleared Congress and offered practical advice on how investors can benefit from tax law changes, plus the pros and cons.

Host Shelley Duffy and Barbara Zivkovich of the Pittsburgh office of the I.R.S. and George O'Hanlon of the Western PA office talked about tax filing time, how to get the most out of your return, and what to do if you have questions.

Host Shelley Duffy and Beck Cutler, a Money Management expert, discussed how to manage your money wisely and not always be "over-extended."

Host Shelley Duffy and Dennis Damp, author of "Dollars & Sense," talked about easy, understandable ways to invest money by using money you probably didn't know you had, especially useful around tax time.

Host Shelley Duffy and William Williams, Assistant to the President of H & R Block, discussed tax information and preparation for 1991, plus new loans and help for the soldiers in the Persian Gulf.

Host Shelley Duffy and a representative from H & R Block, Al Galato, talked about changes in tax returns this year, what consumers should be aware of, and what they can do to get the most from their returns.

Rebroadcast of the 3/24/90 show aired at 7:00.

This is a rebroadcast of the 2/17/90 show aired at 7:00.

News

Barbara Zivkovich, IRS, talks about the extra time to file your taxes this year. But she also warns those late taxpayers about filing for an extension and sending a check if they owe any money.

Bob Colville, District Attorney, reported on how the police are looking into several "airplane pyramid" investment schemes operating in the county.

Douglas Yager, Deputy Attorney General, commented on pyramid investment scheme circulating in the state and how the Justice Department was seeking to fine those who promote at the rate of $1,000 per customer.

Dr. Linda Barbanel, Psychotherapist, described different money styles and spending habits of people.

George O'Hanlon, IRS Pittsburgh director, said they are very concerned that taxpayers won't get the "low down" on changes in new tax law until it's too late. IRS is encouraging people to begin thinking of their taxes now and has set up hotlines.

IRS Western Pennsylvania Director G. O'Hanlon, talks about last minute tax filing and where people can go for help if they need it in the last two days.

Joe Brosnick, spokesman for Peat Marwick accounting firm, feels that federal income tax laws will benefit families because those with children will get bigger deduction. Singles with lots of deductions will suffer.

Tyler Matheson, senior editor, Money Magazine, gave results of poll magazine conducted. Reported that 80% of us think about money; 50% worry about it and that young people think their sex lives would be better if they had more money.

Warren Schrumm of IRS corrected false reports indicating W-4 forms were available in all places where forms can usually be found. The IRS just started printing them yesterday.

Warren Shrum, spokesman for IRS, noted possible problems tax payers may be having with their tax returns, and told of two "hot lines" which could be called for help from the IRS.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are you going to cheat on your income tax return

Besides hitting the lottery, what's the best way to make a lot of money

Do stock market fluctuations affect your personal financial situation

Have the Economy and Gulf Crisis affected your holiday spending this year

How lucky do you feel about winning tonight's super seven jackpot

How much money have you invested on your way to becoming rich in tomorrow's super seven drawing

How will you know when you've really made it in life

It looks like the cost of a stamp may be going up to 30 cents. What are going to have to do to afford the increase

It seems like Donald Trump is in some financial trouble. What would you like to do to help out "Poor Donald"

Should we eliminate the penny

Should you ever lend money to a relative

The lottery is going to be held seven days a week, beginning this Sunday. Will you be playing more and how do you feel about a Sunday drawing

What are you planning to do with your income tax refund

What do you dread most about doing your taxes

What do you think about the 29 cent stamp

What do you think about this year's new tax forms

What's the surest way to get rich

Why do you suppose we haven't seen lottery mania, even though tonight's super seven jackpot is the second highest in the state's history

Will you be standing in lottery lines next week, even if the jackpot is only a mere one million dollars

With times getting tougher, what are you cutting out of your lifestyle to make ends meet

---

Personal Relationships

Better working, living and value systems among individuals, family members, and co-workers

We try to address the issues which cause tension between individuals.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Donna Williams, self proclaimed expert on singles living in Pittsburgh, discussed the new trends regarding dating and marriage and how the AIDS scare has affected relationships.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Judith Sills, author of "A Fine Romance" discussed what to expect and what not to hope for in a good relationship, and the common misconceptions and misunderstandings that doom relationships.

Host Shelley Duffy and Alexdra Penney, author of "How to Keep Your Man Monogamous" talked about relationships and how to stay happy with one man/or woman.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Phyllis Kuntz, an Assistant Professor at the School of Public and International Affairs at Pitt, talked about the changes in relationships and families over the years, what works and what affects them most.

Host Shelley Duffy and a "trance channell" Laurel Steinhice talked about speaking for the deceased and how psychics like Edgar Cayce channel messages through her, she explains what it's like, and gives demonstrations on how it is done.

Host Shelley Duffy and author of "Doesn't Anyone Blush Anymore?" Manis Freidman, talked about reclaiming intimacy, and morality, and how marriage has changed over the years.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 5/20/90 at 7:00.

Repeat of 3/23/91.

This show was a repeat of the show aired on 2/16/91.

News

Donna Williams, of Positively Singular, a group that organizes events for singles, introduces the first singles' Expo in Pennsylvania.

Matthew Lesko, known as King of Government Freebies and Cheapies, also author of Info-Power, talks about ways "Uncle Sam" can help you find the love of your life this Valentine's Day.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are people meaner these days

Are personal ads or dating services good ways to meet people? Have you ever considered using them

Are the people you work with threatened by your abilities

Are you offended when people use profanity

Do men or women make better decisions

Do you approve of pre-marital sex

Do you think "nice guys" really finish last

Do you think we've become too sensitive to too many subjects

Has the AIDS scare changed your sexual habits

Has your boss ever made a pass at you

Have you ever been "hit on" by a married person

Have you ever experienced E.S.P.

How do you define true love

How do you get over a broken heart

How do you handle the stress of everyday life

How much is love worth

How old were you when you had your first kiss

If an automated teller machine gave you more money than you requested, would you tell the bank

If the 70's were the "me" decade, then the 80's are the _____ decade

If you could do it all over, would you marry your current spouse

If you could hit one person in the face with a pie, who would it be and why

If you found a big sack of money, unmarked bills, and no one saw you, would you keep it or turn it in

In general, do you approve or disapprove of unmarried couples living together

Is it better to be single, married, or divorced

Is it tough to meet single people in Pittsburgh

Is lying on the increase? Are Americans becoming more dishonest

Is there a caste system or class system in this country

Ladies: Do men expect too much from women: Do women expect too much from men

Name one person who has shaped your life`

Since Valentine's Day is just around the corner, what makes your sweetheart, such a sweetheart

Singles: What are the biggest roadblocks to meeting people

There's been a lot of publicity about the Trump pre-nuptial agreement. What do you think about agreements like that

What is love

What is the key to popularity in high school

What is the worst pickup line someone has ever used on you

What is your favorite romantic fantasy

What is your opinion of people who use prostitutes

What really turns you on

What things cause the most stress in your life

What was your most embarrassing moment

What word would you use to describe your mate

What's the biggest turn off for you on first date

What's the funniest or strangest thing that's ever happened to you on a date

What's the most embarrassing thing that has ever happened to you

What's the rudest thing you've ever done in the morning because you're tired

What's the worst date you ever had

What's your definition of romance

When on a first date, what's one thing the other person could do to turn you off

When you get mad, do you usually blame yourself or others

Which "opening lines" have you had the most success with. What happened when you used them

Women: What is more important, a good man or good sex

Would you be comfortable working with an admitted homosexual

Would you sign a prenuptial agreement

---

Politics

A better understanding of the political system in the City and County Governments

By hearing political candidates, and those who have been elected to public office, Pittsburgh area residents can become more familiar with the political process and learn what their officials do.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Otis Lyons, Allegheny County's Deputy Register of Wills, discussed his platform, including reducing the income tax. He is for at-large elections instead of district elections.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Charles Rubin, Assistant Professor of Political Science at Duquesne University talked about the election, what makes it one of the most negative in history and what good and bad points each candidate possessed.

News

City Council members, Michele Madoff & Jim Ferlo tell why they support or oppose a plan to cut the city's police force. Madoff voted in favor, Ferlo against, saying city should make cuts elsewhere because police protection is a priority.

County Commissioner Barbara Hafer discussed fact that commissioners voted a pay raise of more than $20,000 for themselves for next elected term. Stated that pay raise is long overdue, pay of the Commissioners has fallen far behind that of judges.

County elections bureau director talked about his predictions for today's (primary) voter turnout, also new election methods, and tips for voters, especially if they have questions.

Duquesne University Professor of Political Science, Kent Mores, discussed the Super Tuesday primaries and how much impact the primary will have in Pennsylvania.

Frank Lucchino, Democratic Committee Chairman, was heartened that black candidate Otis Lyons was endorsed by the democratic committee.

James Scanlon, Director Allegheny County Elections Bureau, talks about a low voter turnout for this year's local elections. He says it should be just the opposite because we're electing local officials.

Jim Scanlon, Director of the Department of Elections and Voter Registration, commented on fact that voter apathy is so low, and how they can turn it around and bring people back to the polls.

Kr. Kent Moores of Duquesne University talked about what Pittsburgh voters are looking for in the primary; what the top issues in each party that voters will be considering.

Marilyn Quayle discussed the Vice Presidential debate, what the Bush/Quayle ticket means to Pittsburgh, defended her husband's qualifications, and her visit to Pittsburgh

Mark Wolsik, the new county elections director, talks about this year's "off-election" and the fact that voter turnout will be higher because of the race for the vacant U.S. Senate seat.

Paul Stackhouse, Allegheny County Labor Council, expressed his concern because the Reverend Jesse Jackson planned to participate in parade shortly after going on nationwide televiion and announcing his eventual intention to run for President.

Pennsylvania Democratic Campaign Chairman discussed what Pennsylvania means for Dukakis today-election day; last minute campaigning overnight gears up voters.

Republican Campaign Chairman discussed what Pennsylvania means for Bush; there's a "silent suport" among Democrats for Bush.

Rob Sheppard, a Shadyside voter in Tuesday's primary talks about why he thinks the new "by-district" voting method for council members, is a good one.

Senate Thomas Hearings - The confirmation of Clarence Thomas is announced and Pennsylvania Senator Arlen Specter and Massachusetts Senator Ted Kennedy trade digs about Thomas.

Shadyside resident Layla Gallagher talks about local tax reform on the primary ballot, and why she voted against it.

Stephen Broddas, Black Representative, claims current "at large" system weakens black vote so they're hoping voters will approve the "by district" method in primaries.

Stuart Cohen, Urban League of Pennsylvania, indicated that Urban Leage of Pennsylvania and black voters registration drive working together prompted sign up of 3800 new voters.

The Deputy Director of Elections in Alleghany County talked about voter registration and expected turnout in Allegheny County this election.

Tim Stevens, Organizer for the Black Political Empowerment Project, discussed main goal of signing up 5,000 new voters.

Tom Flaherty, City Controllor, said that he's done a great job as city controllor and announced he's running for another term in the office.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A low voter turnout is expected in today's election. How do you feel about voters choosing not to go to the polls

Are you sorry Gary Hart's not running for president

Are you sorry New York Governor Mario Cuomo is not running for president

Are you voting in the primary

Can Gary Hart win the Democratic Presidential nomination

Can the Iran Contra affair really be compared to Watergate

Could a revived Gary Hart campaign survive

Did Gary Hart do the right thing by dropping out of the race

Did the so called negative campaigning in this primary influence how you voted Tuesday

Do you think "Stormin" Normal Shwartzkoff is presidential material

Do you think Governor Casey should choose someone from Pennsylvania to fill the vacant U.S. Senate seat

Do you think Grant Street should be renamed in honor of the late Mayor Richard Caliguiri

Do you think Jesse Jackson has a good chance of receiving the Democratic Party nomination

Do you think John Tower should get the nomination for Defense Secretary

Do you think Presidential campaigns are too long

Do you think Tom Murphy should run against Sophie Masloff in November

Do you think most politicians are honest

Do you think the Mayor is doing a good job

Do you think the race or sex of a Vice-Presidential candidate will affect voters who go to the polls

Do you think there should be a spending cap on the mayor's race

Do you think too much attention is paid to who's doing what wrong in the White House

Do you vote ? What issues would like the Mayor to address in his new term

Does Pittsburgh City Council focus on the issues you'd like to see covered

During the time President Bush has been in office, would you say he's done a good job

Has the Mayor's credibility suffered because of John Norton's dismissal, or reports that he started a misinformation campaign about Tom Flaherty, the whistle-blowing City Controller

Have you ever been harrassed or bothered, right at your voting place, by people trying to get you to vote a certain way? How do you feel about that

How confident are you in President Reagan

How do you feel about Dan Quale assuming the presidency

How much confidence do you have in President Reagan, and how do you think his second term is going thus far

How much do you trust our Federal Government

How will you remember Senator John Heinz

If the Presidential election were held today, who would you vote for, a Democrat or Republican

If you won a race for political office, what would you say in your acceptance speech

Is the abortion issue a major concern of yours in this year's Gubenatorial Race

It's been one year since the death of Mayor Richard Calijury .. How do you think Sophie Masloff has done since taking over the position.

Local elections are beginning to heat up. From what you've seen so far who'd be your choice for mayor

Now that we have a new president, what do you expect from the Bush administration

Of the 3 Democratic presidential candidates still left, who do you think will win

President Bush's popularity is reportedly slipping, especially since the Gulf Crisis. Do you think he'll have trouble getting re elected

Presidential Hopeful Gary Hart says he won't answer questions about his personal life because it doesn't matter. Does it

Should Pittsburgh City Council be elected by district or at large

Should President Reagan be impeached over the "Iranian Arms" controversy

Should the President allowed to run for three terms

Shoutly after city councilman Miahael Coyen was arrested, there was a call for him to resign. Do you think its necessary

The state's method for choosing John Heinz's successor is now up in the air. How do you think it should be done

Today is President's Day. Who do you think would make a good president

What are Pittsburgh Mayor Caliguiri's strengths and weaknesses

What big issues will you take into consideration when you go to the polls today

What can be done to encourage more people to vote on Election Day

What do you think about Pittsburgh City Council's voting itself a raise

What do you think about Presidential public opinion polls

What do you think about the ethics rules controversy which forced Jim Wright to resign as speaker of the House

What do you think is the reason for voter apathy in this Presidential election.

What do you think of Pittsburgh councilwoman Michelle Madoff

What is your impression of Oliver North

What issue do you think the next President of the United States should address first

What worries you most -- that the President says he didn't know about the Iran Contra scandal, or that many think he did know and is just not fessing up

When you vote, do you vote for the person, or the party

Who do you want to see become the next president of the United States

Who is your first choice for president

Who's your choice for Mayor in today's primary

Why do you think there may not be as much interest in the Mayor's race this time around

Will the results of the Super Tuesday primaries influence the way you vote in the Pennsylvania primary

Will you vote in today's primary